When you have your portrait taken you naturally want a GOOD one; to ensure this you must go to a place where not only the best appliances and artistic skill are to be found, but where also TIME can be taken to study your features, get their most pleasing expression, the most suitable light and graceful pose.
If the photographer lowers his prices too much he cannot take the necessary time to do his work well, but must run his customers through like sheep, trusting to the NUMBER to make his profit.
A sensible person will beware of such and prefer to go where fair prices are charged and every care taken to ensure the work turning out satisfactorily; such was the case at the "Gran Fotografia Platense" whose customers never having been driven away by excessively high prices do not require to be lured back by catchpenny reductions.

TELEGRAMS

(To the "Prensa".)

London, 27th.—The Lord Mayor of Dublin and William Redmond have been pelted with stones in Blarney Street, Cork. The whole of that city is now an anti-Parnellite fortress. Riots are frequent, and 15 injured persons are lying in hospital. Fresh efforts are being made by prominent men to reconcile the two factions.

Lord Randolph Churchill, in his address to the electors, says that he believes Home Rule for Ireland is impossibility; and if it should be tried it will prove futile.

Brussels, 27th.—The police and a number of Socialists had a fight in the streets last night, and the former were beaten and disarmed, some of them being seriously wounded with their own arms arrested from them. The Civil Guards dispersed the mob. Further disorder is expected.

Paris, 27th.—The United States Legation in this city has telegraphed to Washington, asking that the military attaché, Captain Borup, accused of having procured and sold to Italy and Germany plans of French fortresses, be at once withdrawn. This shows that there is some ground for the charge against him.

Three detectives have gone to London to arrest two Anarchists who took part in blowing up the Very restaurant in April.

St. Petersburg, 27th.—Seventy deaths from cholera occurred in Baku, a Caucasian town of 64,000 souls, last week.

The Czar intends to deal with the student class in the same rigorous way as he does with the Jews.

Cholera is advancing towards the Red Sea, and has reached Tiflis.

Munich, 27th.—Before leaving Vienna Birmarck requested an interview with Emperor Francis Joseph but the latter refused.

Simla, 27th.—The Ameer has sent 3000 troops to deal with Ayud, Khan of Jandol, who has married his tribes to the frontier of India and Afghanistan, in spite of the protests of the Ameer. The latest advices say that the Ameer's troops have been routed by the Khan's assisted by Mehemed's tribes.

(To the "Nacion.")

London, 27th—As Mr. Gladstone was crossing one of the principal streets of Chester, where he is staying at present for electoral purposes, a woman came up and threw a stone at him, wounding him in the eye. The police caught the woman. Public indignation was so great that the police could barely prevent the crowd from ill-treating the woman.

Rome, 27th—The papers comment very favorably on the King's visit to Germany. The silence of the French press is regarded is expressive of disgust at the success of the visit. In political circles it is rumored that the King's visit is in some way connected with certain financial arrangements.

St. Petersburg, 27th—Cholera has broken out in Tiflis, in the Caucasus. It is rapidly spreading in Turkestan. The authorities have taken the most rigorous measures of precaution. The plague is causing great ravages in Persia and Afghanistan.

Brussels, 27th—There was a scuffle between the police and a body of Socialists owing to the former endeavoring to disperse the meeting. Several people were injured.

ACCIDENT TO THE LA PLATA.

"We regret to record a fatal accident on board the French mail-steamer La Plata, two of the victims having already died, besides two more sufferers whose lives are despaired of. We take the following particulars from the Nacion, and append the explanation of Capt. Spooner, R.M.S. Clyde, from which it is clear that not a shadow of blame rests upon him in the matter.

"At half past eleven on the night of Thursday the 23rd, the French steamer La Plata of the Messageries Maritimes, was navigating about 650 miles south of Rio Janeiro, when an accident occurred. At the hour mentioned, the steamer stopped, and a loud and singular noise was heard. The covering of the large cylinders of the engine burst into a thousand pieces. The greatest alarm was caused amongst the passengers by the mishap, which was supplemented on the following day by a terrible explosion which occasioned the death of three men, besides injuring many others. It was providential that none of the passengers were injured. They were all gathered round the doors and opening of the machine-room, gazing at the ruin caused by the bursting of the covering of the cylinders, when a jet of steam flew up, dispersing them. They fled to the corners of the deck. This jet of steam, by terrifying them and causing them to fly, saved lives, for, a few minutes afterwards, the explosion occurred. A fearful report was heard. The vessel trembled. Women and children shrieked, and some minutes later, half-hidden by the steam could be seen naked men issuing from the machine-room, their bodies horribly burned, covered with blood, blackened, calling for assistance. These were the engineers and stokers.

"The ship doctor and Dr. Aires, who was a passenger, attended to the injured, two of who succumbed in a few hours, while a third died on the following day. There are two others whose lives are despaired of. A Spanish priest and four Sisters of Charity, who were passengers on board, took care of the injured.

"The catastrophe occurred in 33 degrees South latitude, and about forty miles from the coast of Rio Grande. The vessel could not move: she could not be managed. Luckily there was no wind and the sea was calm. Nevertheless, the alarm of the passengers was very great. It was even feared that the explosion had caused the vessel to spring a leak. The passengers complain of the reticence of the commander and officers, who refused to give any information. In view of the gravity of the accident and the helplessness of the vessel, distress signals were hoisted. At 5 o'clock a steamer was sighted in the distance. A gun was fired and a boat lowered and sent towards the steamer, which, however, appeared not to perceive the signals and steamed out of sight. Between 9 and 10 o'clock, another steamer was sighted. She came so near that she was easily recognised. It was the Royal Mail Steamer Clyde, which had left Rio that morning. A gun was fired and the Commander ordered the signals to be made. The night was clear and the weather calm. But the Clyde, like the other steamer, passed on. The indignation of the passengers on board the La Plata was very great. Later on, the same night, the little steamer Fortuna, which plies between Santa Catalina and Montevideo, perceived the distress-signals and approached the La Plata. She came up and remained alongside until the following morning, when she towed the La Plata at a speed of 3½ miles an hour. The steamers Toro and Malvinas, which in view of the delay of the La Plata, were despatched from Montevideo, reached her on Monday at 2 p.m., and assisted in towing her. Towed by these three steamers, the La Plata entered Montevideo Monday evening at 6 o'clock.

"The steamer La Plata is one of the largest and finest on the River Plate route. She was built in the Ciotat shipyard. She was launched on the 18th June, 1888. She is 480 feet long by 45 feet width and has an ordinary speed of 15 miles an hour. She usually does the journey between Bordeaux and the Plate in 20 days. She is larger than the Portugal, and equal in dimensions to the Bresil of the same company. The La Plata has 50 first-class passengers, amongst others the British Chargé d'Affaires Mr. G. Welby. She left Rio at 11 o'clock on the night of the 21st and was due in Montevideo on the 24th.

"After the occurrence of the accident, the passengers raised a subscription of 3,400 francs for the sufferers and the families of those who perished.

"The losses are estimated at several hundred thousand francs. She is to be repaired in Europe and will leave the Plate on her usual date of departure, one of her boilers being intact."

We are authorized by Capt. Spooner of the R.M.S Clyde to say that he regrets exceedingly to hear of the mishap which occurred to the French mail steamer La Plata, which he heard yesterday for the first time. He begs us to say, moreover, that on the evening of Friday, 24th inst., at 7 o'clock he passed two steamers heading southward, which were about 5 miles nearer shore than the Clyde. Half-an-hour later he passed the R.M. Tagus homeward bound, which was also nearer shore, and with which he exchanged signals. Between 9 and 10 p.m. a steamer was reported, 5 miles inshore, which had just fired a rocket. Thereupon Captain Spooner went on the bridge. A single red light was observed at the steamer's foremast head, which could not be understood, there being no known signal of that nature in the Commercial code, which is universal. The steamer was watched as long as she was in sight, say half an hour or more, but no further signal of any description was seen or heard, and Capt. Spooner concluded that it was a telegraph ship or a war-vessel using some private signal. The night-signal for a steamer disabled is 3 red lights vertical, on the fore-stay, and if in distress rockets or a gun at short intervals. As none of these conditions were complied with there was no reason to suppose that the steamer was in distress or even disabled.

It is absurd to suppose that either Capt. Spooner or any other captain would pass a vessel in distress without offering assistance. Apart from the satisfaction of saving a steamer with so many lives on board there would be the pecuniary advantage of a large amount for salvage. Capt. Spooner has on several occasions rescued ships in distress and would gladly have done so on the present occasion. Some time since he saved one of the Messageries Maritimes steamers near Santa Cruz, West Indies, for which the French authorities presented him with a gold chronometer.

MR. CHARLES EDWARD CULLEN.

Among the various persons who have successively enjoyed the privilege of attending to Baron Hirsch's interests and colonies in this country the name of Mr. Cullen stands out as the friend and patron of the poor Jews. It will be remember that when the business of buying 100 sq. leagues in the Chaco for the new colonies was apparently on the point of completion Mr. Cullen, who was visiting the new colonies in Entre Rios, met with a lamentable railway accident. After a detention of nearly four months in his house, his foot having been seriously injured, he is now able to walk a little, and we believe he meditates leaving shortly for Europe. During his long and painfull illness he was nursed with the utmost assiduity by his devoted and accomplished wife, and his pains were further assuaged by the anxious solicitude of the Jewish settlers, who have at intervals offered up public prayers for his recovery.

"Our father, who takes part in our tribulations, Mr. Cullen. All the pens of the best writers, even one of a thousand, are not able to express and to give a right weight to the thanksgiving, praising, and blessing with which the inhabitants of Moses Ville overflowed their hearts and souls. Men, as well as their spouses and children, at their lying down and rising up they all ask with a weeping voice: where now is our merciful father? The kindest amongst men and the highest of all souls, Mr. Cullen, who made his appearance to us as a delivering angel, with his kind words, with his righteous deeds that have rejoiced our hearth, and has rolled down from us the afflicting stone which has been weighing us down ever since our first steps on Argentine soil, and the anger of the cruel overseers who have oppressed our every foot-step. Who can imagine the bewailing and lamentations with which we wept at the moment when we heard to our sorrow that Mr. Cullen is unwell in his feet, which were walking in the upright and just way. Therefore, we assemble ourselves together, old and young, in our holy house to pray to the God of Israel, who heals all the sick, that He shall grant quickly a perfect cure to our father Cullen, and we sang on his behalf the psalm of the King David, psalm CXIX, and we prayed all with one voice and with one heart.

"May He who blessed our Fathers, Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, also bless, preserve, guard and assist, by sending a perfect cure, Charles Edward Cullen, whose wish and purpose has always been to brighten the lot of the Jewish people and place them on a solid foundation, so shall God assist thee and thou shalt be vigorous as before. On behalf of this we took a vow to make a feast on the date of 26th January, 1892, the day of our joy, which was caused by thy first appearance in Moses Ville. Thou art our father, thou art our protector, and our hope and our expectation is only in thee. Thou hast opened thine merciful eyes to bring upon us the light of the benevolent Baron, to draw us out from hunger and need and from the oppression of our insidious overseers.

"May the most Holy render thee a reward, remove from thee all sickness, heal thy bodily ailments and send blessing and prosperity to all the works of thy hand, to fortify and to excel the good works of the Baron. We all bless thee, angel of peace, that there be peace to thee, peace unto thy name, and peace unto all thou hast. May the Eternal bless all of us with peace, and let us say: Amen."

(Here follow 220 signatures.)

We need hardly say that Mr. Cullen is not a Jew, but grandson of the great Dr. Cullen, who was so long head of the medical faculty of Edinburgh.

His services in the East have already, as Sir Vincent Barrington says, earned him a European reputation. He was all through the Turkish campaign of 1876, in charge of various hospitals and ambulances in the Balkan Mountains. His long residence in the Black Sea and the Danube valley has enabled him to acquire fluently all the tongues of Eastern Europe, and at the same time to learn how to manage Oriental peoples.

The French journal La Turquie, of Constantinople, which rarely has a good word for an Englishman, speaks in the highest terms of his services in the Rhodope Mountains—"Ten hours on "horseback every day; indefatigable in "looking after the poor sufferers; pos-"sessing not only humanity but con-"summate tact, vigilance and adminis-"trative skill. Such is M. Cullen, "eminenily the man for such a post, and "well he does his work."

We have only to add that at a recent session of the Royal Geographical Society Dr. Rae, the famous Arctic explorer, proposed Mr. Cullen as a Fellow and he was elected, so that we may before long hear of a soirée of that learned body in connection with a lecture on the Chaco, of which Mr. Cullen has perhaps seen more than any other man living.

OUR LONDON LETTER.

THE DERBY. SLAVIN AND JACKSON. THE FOUR IN HAND.

(From our own Correspondent.)

June 1st.

Fine north-westerly breeze, big fleecy clouds with blue spaces between, and frequent gleams of bright sunshine. The dust has been laid by a smart shower over night, and altogether a sportsman could not wish a finer Derby day, if the rain holds off. It is approaching the hour for saddling as I write; but, whether La Fleche wins or whether she does not, June 1st, 1892, will be less celebrated for what occurs on the course at Epsom than for the fact that, while the Derby is being run, the House of Commons sits. To the astonishment of the Speaker, Lord Elcho rose to support Sir Wilfred Lawson's annual amendment on the motion for the adjournment of the House over the Derby day. The amendment last night was carried by a majority of 14. Lord Elcho may have seized the opportunity for making another successful speech of the jocose order. "Loud laughter" spots the report of the noble lord's oration, but it does not read funny. We all know that once a man attains the reputation of being funny the silly giggle if he sneezes or asks for the salt. Elcho himself, knows what he is about. The dissolution is pretty well fixed for the end of the month. People have an inkling that the expiring parliament will be the last of the old kind. The London County Council now sets the fashion It means business, and is still smeared with some of the unctuosity of the serious-minded. It has just forbidden the Sunday bands in the parks to play dance music. But, as Mr. John Burns suggested, "what is dance music?" The prohibition might extend to the old "suite" or "partita" made up of gigues and gavottes. It might expunge Beethoven's Pastoral symphony from the park programs equally with Auber's overture to 'La Sirene.' Bumble and Muddle care not for these things. They say with some of that reason which characterises the average mind; "if you play waltzes and polkas the people will sooner or later begin to dance, and then!"

Why, as they sing in the streets—

"So they say, so they say,
We're going to 'eaven singing
Ta ra boom de aye."

The young Conservatives in the House look upon Lord Elcho as an apostate. They anticipate great changes in the "first club house in the world." They look forward to the day when at Westminster palace there will be prayer meetings on the terraces and mothers' meetings in the library. As an amusing comment on Lord Elcho's victory I may mention I have just run over to the next table to have a glance at the parliamentary report of the day. I observe that the Attorney-General was the sole occupant of the Ministerial benches, there were only 19 members in the House, which was counted out at 1.15. Lord Salisbury has set the example of rebellion—or as Mr. Gladstone called it yesterday in his speech at the Memorial Hall—'political incendiarism'. I can imagine Balfour, who does not care a small fourth letter of the alphabet for the Derby, saying 'I will not be cowed by an illiterate majority. I was going to play golf; I wont. Out of spite I'll go to Epsom."

Lord Salisbury is as right as paint after his tumble in St James's street. He looked uncommonly well the day before yesterday when I saw him in the House of Lords chatting and laughing with Lord Cadogan whilst a prosy peer was in the interests of liberty and property inveighing against some ambitious water company. No use. The grand old man has added the London program to that of Newcastle. He is in full electioneering trim and "is prepared to confer with the Trades Council on the eight hours question." There is nothing he is not prepared to do. He means to win, and, like Slavin and Jackson, begins hard hitting at once. He speaks with contempt of "a few fools and rogues in Ulster who are attracted by her caluminators and the utterances of a political incendiary!"

You have no room for politics. You will want a column for the great "fight"—you are requested by the president of the Sporting Club to call it a "contest." It was a short and savage one. Jackson, the black, was too clever for Slavin, who was done in the eighth round and knocked silly in the tenth and last. He is all right now. He was rubbed down and put to bed, and the next day, though one of his peepers was still bunged up, and cuts and bumps on face and body showed badly, he smoked his cigar and talked cheerily. He confesses he underrated Jackson both as a hitter and stayer. He was in too great a hurry to win—a tip for Gladstone—he made for the jaw and so did Jackson quicker and with more effect, and subsequently turned his attention to Slavin's stomach until poor Frank's arms dropped by his side, and he stood a dazed and battered target for the black's finishers. And yet an hour before the—the contest, a British noble laid £700 to £400 on Slavin. There will be much money lost on the affair in what we are proud to call English-speaking countries. Jackson held a levee the day after at Brighton. He showed no signs of the recent argument, but he received hard hits and his face was bathed in blood in the fight, and would probably have hung out more colours if his complexion had been a shade or two lighter. He is a thorough nigger, born in the West Indies. He has spent a great deal of his life in Australia, where he instructed Slavin in the art.

The meet of the Four in Hand Club was a pretty sight on Monday in the park. Mostly because the day was so superb and the crowd so vast and so gay. Otherwise there were only 19 coaches. They tell me the teams were all perfect. I noticed three teams, two of them dark bays and one chesnuts, which even to my uninstructed eyes were lovely. As for the rest I thought some amongst them were almost too business-like, wanting in style and differing little from what we see every day in Northumberland Avenue. You are great sportsmen. Now, tell me; is it essential that in our drags we should adhere to the model of the old stage coach with its heavy wheels and top bamper? In the park the coaches came up with a rattle that sounded like so many brewers' drays. The ladies in front seemed pained with the effort to keep their seats; whilst the men behind looking backwards and facing the grooms appeared to me ridiculous. Why not bicycle wheels like the new hansoms, and garden chairs like the new buses? The insides of the drays are waste—mere boots or locker for liquor and grub.

Mrs Osborne is a mother. The new comer is a daughter. Captain Osborne, I am sorry to say, has resigned his commission. He is going to settle down in the retirement of family life.

Mr. Bemberg's opera "Elaine" will be produced at Covent Garden about the 20th inst. The two de Rèszkes, Madame Deschamps and Madame Melba take part in it. The opera will be produced under the personal direction of the composer.

5 p.m. And so La Fleche has not won. Sir Hugo 1, La Fleche 2, Bucentaure 3. The day is still bright and beautiful. An account of the race can be left for the Pacific s.s. Stock exchange quiet.

PROVINCIAL NEWS.

There is joy in Santiago del Estero, owing to the release of the political prisoners. It will be remembered that these unfortunate and over-enthusiastic gentlemen were arrested in the last days of April. Their stay in prison was somewhat protracted but they were well treated. They were allowed to wash and change their linen, and we understand that some of them were permitted to indulge in the soapy luxury of a shave. The joy of Santiago del Estero, however, is like a meteor: it dazzles and disappears instantaneously. The Santiagueños are now steeped in excitement regarding their Governor's election, which is declared to be illegal. It was declared so from the first by the public voice: it was then forgotten, and now a letter on the subject from no less a personage than Dr. Aristobulo del Valle has rekindled political passion, and there is a wave of public agitation sweeping uselessly, we fear, against the rock of Mr. Rojas's election.

Telegrams from Cordoba state that Governor Pizarro may be tempted to abandon the provincial reins of Government to take a seat in the National Cabinet under Dr. Luis Saenz Peña. We think this is a "canard," for Dr. Pizarro, like Cæsar, would sooner be first in a village than second elsewhere. There appears to be a good deal of political ill-feeling in Cordoba at present.

We note in our La Plata contemporary El Dia an interesting account of Lujan and the miraculous shrine. A new church has been erected, containing ten altars rivalling in beauty of design, execution, and decoration any of the altars in the principal churches of B. Ayres. Add to that oil-paintings of great value, illustrating biblical subjects. Alongside the church there is an immense building occupied by the fathers of the Order to whose care the church has been confided. The building covers half a block. The fathers have a college.

The other night two sailors were drowned in the port of La Plata. In the darkness, they tumbled into the dock and perished before any help could be given.

MORATORIBUS v. MORATORIUM.

To the Editor of The Financial Times.

Sir,—

In a paragraph, in your issue of the 28th May, the Buenos Aires STANDARD is charged with persisting in using the word Moratoribus instead of Moratorium; and seeing that two months at least must elapse before our southern contemporary can defend itself, and that consequently the reflection on its literary accuracy, having such a long start, may never be overtaken I beg to be allowed to take up the cudgels on its behalf.

I am not in the confidence of the editor of the Buenos Airos STANDARD, but I imagine that his defence would be that the word moratoribus is the dative plural of morator—which means a dawyer—and that the term "grace" or "time," or "concession" must be understood in connection with it. Thus a "moratoribus of three year" signifies "three year' grace to the delayers." This is a form of speech not uncommon in the Latin tongue. Take, for example, the famous phrase 'Ex pede Herculem'; the governing word is, for the sake of force and conciseness, omitted But the curious part of the matter is that there is no such word as moratorium—at all events, it is nowhere to be found in my lexicon. However, I suppose custom and the common consent of writers are a sufficient warrant for the coinage of any new word, and moratorium seems to have secured such sanction. But if anybody is yearning to know the absolutely correct term, and won't be happy till he gets it, I may say it is the Spanish word 'moratoria.' Of course, cynical holders of Argentine stocks will say that so long as the thing itself exists, 'it really doesn't matter, matter, matter,' what the accurate expression for it is; and there's something in that.

While on this topic, I should like to add a few words in endorsement of the caution which you have recently urged on the investing public. The stock markets appear to know no half-way house in estimating the value of Argentine securities; they are either in the Slough of Despond or up in the skies. Last year a very frenzy of panic, quite unjustifiable, swept over investors, and just now the tendency is towards an equally irrational boom. It should be remembered that Argentina is by no means out of the wood yet, although daylight is just faintly discernible between the trees. The termination of the 'moratoria' has still to be faced eighteen months hence, when a scaling-down process will almost certainly be applied to all Argentine obligation. And the effect thereof, if thoughtless operators continue to inflate the market, will be another slump and another howl over what will no doubt be considered a fresh instance of Argentine perfidy.

Which leads me to another point. Let there be an end to the rabid abuse which it has been the regrettable fashion to pour out on the Argentine Republic. Human nature is human natura all the world over, and taking all their temptations into account, I doubt if Argentines are very much worse than other nationalities. No truer words were ever penned than Lowell's sagacious lines:—

"The surest plan to make a man
Is, think him so.—J. B."

And so, under this rule, 'the surest plan' to rectify the Argentine conscience is—well, is not by hurling across the South Atlantic such epithets as a portion of the British Press has unfortunately indulged in. That the course I am advocating is appreciated in Buenos Ayres is evidenced by a leader in a recent issue of La Nacion, one of the foremost journals in that city, in allusion to some remarks of Mr. Reginald J. Neild at a meeting of the Entre-Rios Railway Company, held in London a few weeks ago. 'At a time,' concludes the writer of the article referred to, 'when our country is suffering from the evils brought about by the schemes and follies of speculators whose deeds have intensified the crisis, a kindly and dispassionate word from such a man as Mr. Neild must find an echo in our breasts, and lead up to a just and satisfactory settlement of our difficulties." So mote it be.

I am, &c,
J. W. Picton.

RAILWAY ITEMS.

The manager of the Central Argentine Railway has submitted to Government for approval the plans of two signal apparatus which he proposes to put up at the crossing with the Pacific Railway. The plans in question have already received the approval of the Board of the Pacific Railway.

The Inspector-General has issued a report on Messrs. Runciman and Co.'s proposal to erect a Central Station. The Inspector-General thinks that the conditions formulated by the proponents are inadmissible. Only the National Government could impose such conditions on the railway companies. He, therefore, advises the Government to call a meeting of railway representatives to arrive at some agreement with Messrs. Runciman and Co. In case no arrangement be arrived at, he advises Government to call for tenders for the construction of the proposed station.

The Board of Public Works had, we may state, previously reported on this subject. A special committee was appointed to report on the question. This committee were of opinion that Messrs. Runciman and Co's proposal might be accepted provided the proponents should accept the conditions drawn up by said committee. At the same time the Committee alluded to the advantage of calling for tenders. One of the members of the Commitee was completely opposed to the proposal. This member was Mr. Dominico, whose report as Inspector General, we have just alluded to. The conclusions of the Committee's report were:

1st. That the project might be recommended to Congress for approval, provided the proponents accepted the Committee's conditions.

2nd. That it would be more advantageous to call for tenders.

3th. That, should no tenders be made, the Government might construct provisional works, or in company with the railways interested, carry out the work.

A WORD ABOUT SERVANTS.

Mr. Editor,

It strikes me that we shall soon have some learned doctor telling us that an honest shake of the hands transmits contagious diseases. Dr. Reynal O'Connor warns mistresses that in several cases diseases have been caught from their servants, but he forgets to tell servants how a disease may be caught from their new mistress.

The cruelty of nurses is another fruitful topic, and here he gathers together all the tales he can obtain of the kind; let him remember that servants are very often blamed when innocent. If his theories hold, many a hard-working servant will be unable to find a situation because the mistresses will be frightened by Dr. Reynal O'Connor out of their senses.

Justice.

June 27th.

Mr. Editor,

Would you kindly publish this as an answer to the word about servants.

In reference to the word about servants I think these are quite as particular as what the ladies are in the use of brushes and combs. I have actually known ladies that used the servants' brushes and combs at times.

Servants, moreover, are quite as particular as ladies in regard of being careful against disease. How often does a lady catch typhoid or other ailment, and bring it into the house to the danger of the poor servants, and then the poor hard working servants come in for the blame.

A Servant.

THE HOSPITAL BAZAAR.

Mr. Editor,

Apropos of the phenomenal success of the above Bazaar, I should imagine that the proceeds of the Raffles contributed chiefly to that success. Now, as I and a number of my friends have speculated considerably in these lottery tickets and do not appear to have won anything whatsoever, we should naturally like to know how the drawings took place. It would also be very interesting to know who were the fortunate people who won the valuable prizes offered; therefore I think, in the interest of all concerned, that the Hospital Commiftee should publish a list giving the number of the raffle, the winning number, the article won, and last, but not least, the name of the lucky winner.

Inquisitive.

EDITOR'S TABLE.

We beamed with patriotic and charitable satisfaction yesterday when an Envoy Extraordinary from the British Hospital Committee presented his credentials with the glorious news that the total proceeds of the Bazaar, all expenses paid, are £6000 stg!! This beats into fits all previous bazaars, British or other, ever held here, and we propose three cheers for the ladies and the Committee. The Hospital Bazaar ten years ago gave £4000; that in 1870 £3200; and that held in the Colon Theatre in 1860 £1600, to which Her Majesty's Government added a like amount, having promised pound for pound realized by the Bazaar. If we had all put on poor mouths and promised Lord Salisbury our support at next week's election, we might have secured a similar favour: but it is now too late.

We feel much pleasure in welcoming back to the Plate H. M. new Chargé d' Affaires, Mr. George Earl Welby, who has arrived in the La Plata. He has many old friends here, having been Secretary of Legation in 1875-1876; he subsequently went to the Embassy at Vienna.

There was a rumour in town yesterday that President Pellegrini intended to resign, a "canard" which some fools swallowed whole.

The Deputies have given their verdict on the state of siege, which is to be raised the moment the Senators give the wink.

More political unpleasantness in San Juan. The Legislature has impeached the Governor for having too many armed men to keep order at an election in that charming six-by two spot Valle Fertil. The loaded Remingtons went off and reduced the local population. Hence the row.

We much regret to announce the death at the early age of 29, of Mrs. Charlotte Thomson (neé Hennessy), wife of Mr. James Thomson, formerly of Villanueva. We offer the lamented lady's family our sincere condolence. Funeral leaves 920 Calle Artes to-day at 4 p.m.

Villa Devoto is going ahead. The twin "chalets" of Dr. Susini and Dr. Dominguez are approaching completion, in front of the railway station. These two eminent physicians are preaching on all sides the excellence of the Village of the Heights. Two families who left Devoto some months ago, to reside in the city, have came back because their children did not get good health after the change.

We are glad to read that Canon Terrero is much better; he has been laid up with Influenza, and never before have so many clergymen been ill at once in our city, since the terrible days of 1871.

At President Pellegrini's next reception on Friday night, all the Senators and Deputies will be formally presented to the President-elect, Dr. Peña.

Kissing the famous Blarney-Stone is one thing; but being pelted with stones in Blarney Street, Cork, is a kind of blarney more forcible than polite. The Lord Mayor of Dublin and Mr. Redmond M.P. had a taste of it the other day. Worse still, the Grandest Old Man in or out of England had a stone shied at him by an old hag in Chester, and one of his eagle eyes was hurt. Political passion is evidently rising fast at home.

The City Fathers indulged in a sitting on Monday. They debated the coming city elections, a subject naturally dear to their edile hearts. Then, like the birds that fly from flower to flower, they perched on city taxation, and cruelly refused to exonerate our distinguished countryman, Major de Barritt, from payment of taxes on the head-quarters of the Salvation Army. Then they discussed the expediency of turning that gloomy spot, the Southern Cemetery, into a People's Park. Alderman Davison is not satisfied with the Lord Mayor's decree wiping out the free and easy "palcos" in the theatres; he says that going to the theatres free, gratis and for nothing is very bad for municipal employees, but has no injurious effect, but rather the contrary, on the morale of the city legislators, his honourable colleagues.

The unhappy suggestion of the Lord Mayor to the tramway managers, to start first and second class cars, the first clean and the latter dirty, would never do In this democratic country, one man, and especially one woman, is as good as another, and a great deal better, and all would want to travel first class.

The frost in Entre Rios is so severe that the land is as hard as a stone, and the farmers cannot plough it. Nearly all the grass is gone. Sad state of things.

Whew! The Contribucion Directa in the province of Buenos Ayres was raised last year, and now it has been raised again, 25 per cent. Nice this, in a time of crisis, drought, and a bad winter staring estancieros in the face.

The odour of roast horse and crisped carriages still lingers about the Esmeralda corner of Plaza San Martin, and half the loafers and dead-beats of the town continue to haunt the place. The cause of the blaze is not yet known for certain.

His Grace the Archbishop was 68 years of age yesterday, and we feel much pleasure in wishing him many happy returns of the day.

The Valparaiso mob are strongly imbued with the idea that Chile for the Chilians is the proper thing. They hissed, groaned and insulted the other day the emigrants who went from here at the invitation of the Chilian Legation. The best thing those emigrants can do is to get back here as fast as they can.

Our young Footballing friends are never "back"-ward, or even "half"-backward, on the eve of Sundays and holidays, in coming "forward" with long lists of teams which are so "try"-ing on our space that we have now ushered them to reserved seats of honour by themselves at the foot of our Table, where they will be found to-day, and we hope they are comfortable. They would do us a favour by sending in their lists as early as possible in the day, otherwise there is always a possibility of "force majeure' operating to crowd them out, or boil them down, a process that drives contributors on all subjects, from finance to football, from smoking concerts to the speed of steamers, into that frame of mind which ladies call" perfectly furious." No one but an editor knows what it is to face a p. f. contributor. "Hell hath no fury like a woman scorned." Has it not? She is an angel compared with a contributor who sees the noblest effort of his brains "boiled down."

We are requested to state that the Young Men's Society of the Scotch Church will give a musical and social evening on Thursday 1st, at 8 p.m.

The sins of the Bateman Legacy are recoiling on its now bald head. The Government intends to rigorously enforce the fine of £10,000 stg. per month incurred by the contractors for work in arrear. There is also a list as long as our Church Notices of work that is not exactly up to the mark, and which will have to be done over again before the Government will accept the rescission contract as fulfilled by the contractors It is sad also to learn that no fewer than 877 of the sweet-smelling sumps are out of level. This comes of previous Lord Mayors having put their fingers in the B. L. mud pie.

It is quite evident that there was some confusion on board the La Plata. The R. M. S. Tagus had passed two miles nearer than the Clyde, and if signals of distress had been made the Tagus would have seen them. The same may be said of the two other steamers which were met by the Clyde, going south, and which must have passed very close to the French mail-steamer.

Omnibus companies have hitherto invariably gone to the dogs here. Nevertheless another will begin running in a few days: fare to any quarter of the city five cents. This will cut into the "lomos" of some of the tram companies. It will also injure the doctors, as people who are daily well shaken while being taken in the course of business have healthier livers.

Take care of Number One. There is a jolly and comical row in the Council of Education at La Plata owing to one of the members thereof having voted for his own appointment as Vice President of the Council. Bravo!

We are glad to see that our Lond friends know something of the cla as well as Argentine stocks and C las, though, indeed, their knowledge the latter is not particularly extensive Mr. J. W. Picton has sailed into th Financial Times to defend our use the words "Moratoribus" and "Morat rium." We publish his kind letter another column. When anonymou local writers attack our museum, pi ture gallery and cellar, it is cheerin to have an absent friend to defend ou Latin.

Chile seems inclined to give bac Tacna and Arica to Peru for the mode rate price of ten millions of dollars pay able at the rate of a million a yea There is something internationally poli tical in this sudden rapprochement be tween the quondam foes.

The Zoos have made another human appeal to owners of private carriages t do away with the bearing-rein, as a piec of useless cruelty to their horses. W join the Zoos in the matter. The bearing rein, besides being cruel, disfigures the horse, as it places his head and nec in an unnatural position. The fair dame and damsels who sit behind the horses have tender hearts and would not hurt a cat or dog; then why torture the nobles of all animals? We hope to see an Anti-Bearing rein crusade started by th Ladies: they alone can save the poo horses unnecessary pain.

Mr. Ignacio Orzali is preparing a book "La Prensa Argentina," for the Chicag Exhibition. Hayward's Paste Dip

The best test of a Sheep Dip

PRACTICAL RESULTS OF USING A RELIABLE DIP WHICH CURES THE SCAB AND IMPROVES THE WOOL.

The following testimonial is received from Messrs Ronald & Rogers, the celebrated Brokers for River Plate wools at Liverpool who sold a number of lots of wool from some largest Estancieros in the River Plate.

COPY TESTIMONIAL

Dear Sirs—

Amongst the River Plate Wools which we have sold here this season, our attention has been called to several clips which had been treated with Hayward's "Paste" Sheep Dip, and we have pleasure in testifying to the freedom from scab, and handsome lustrous appearance of these wools, which we consider materially assisted in their obtaining such very good prices.

ON 'CHANGE.

Tuesday, June 28.

The gold premium fell this morning at a rattling pace, and would have fallen much more but for a 'canard' that the President of the Republic, disgusted with the half-hearted vote of the Deputies on the State of Siege Bill, had resolved to resign. Though nobody gave credence to the report, it checked the fall in gold and spread an uncomfortable feeling, quite enough to turn for a moment the scales of the speculation and prevent the headlong 'degringolade' that seemed imminent all morning. The timid began to buy in rapidly, and the ounce, which had fallen to 49.60, rose to 50.10. About nine thousand ounces were sold this morning; the price opened at 49.80, fell steadily to 49.60, rose to 50.10 and closed at 50, say 207½ o/o premium. Fifteen hundred sovereigns were sold at $15.40 to 15.50, closing rate, say 207½ % premium.

The settlement of the month will be in full blast on Thursday, but large engagements have been already liquidated. It is well known that the operations in gold this month have been exceptionally large, as the solution of the Presidential election prepared the way to a heavy bearish speculation. The bears operated on a heavy scale and carried everything before them until the whisper ran round that the Banco de la Nacion might be turned into a State Bank; this was the first check to the bearish campaign, and many operators rushed in to buy back. These early re-purchases have considerably eased the market and removed the danger of any great shortage of gold at the settlement, and, to judge by the march of the market on the eve of the month's liquidation, it looks as if this month will close with a further decline in the gold level. The only weak spot in the speculation is the persistent weakness in exchange rates, not to mention the constant danger of Congress intruding its financial views upon the Government and the market, and shaking the whole fabric with some fresh experiment to cure the crisis.

The scare about the proposed State bank project is dying out rapidly, but a doubt still lingers in the mind of the public. All fear that Congress may take up the matter, and then the market would be in a state of fever for some time. In well-informed quarters, however, it is currently reported that the Banco de la Nacion will not be manipulated by Congress as long as the present Government holds office; the whole business looks very nebulous and defies the sharpest financial glasses in the market. Patriotic Bonds, meantime, are again soaring; two hundred thousand were sold for the end of July at 70½ to 69½; a similar amount was sold for cash and Thursday at 70.70 to 69.80, closing at 70¼. Internal Bonds were dull at 63 for cash and 64 for Thursday. As these two stocks are to-day the only plausible investment for the savings of the public at large, since Cedulas and shares are tabooed, the majority are of opinion that they will be in a steady demand and rise in view of the cheapening tendency of money at present stage of the year.

Catalinas made a faint attempt to look active and firm; they closed at 10.10. La Plata Cedulas were firmer all round at 32.30 to 32.40.

Exchange continues in a dead-and-alive condition in spite of the heavy shipments of maize. Discounts are easy.

Business in the wool market is at a complete stand-still, and the news from Europe is the reverse of favorable. Meantime, enormous quantities of wheat and wool are arriving daily at all the plazas and prices are weakening in view of the heavy supply and the fall in the gold premium. The export of maize continues on a gigantic scale. We see by European advices that maize from the United States is falling in price whilst that from the River Plate is firm and rising; this is due to the exceptional quality of the River Plate corn this season. Distillers tell us that the yield of the maize this year is much above that of previous years, and that the alcohol turned out is very good.

Messrs. J. Rivera é Hijos, "barraqueros" in the Plaza Constitucion, have on exhibition in their "barraca" a horse or "potro" hide of unusual dimensions, viz:—3¼ metres in length, 2 metres in width, and weighing 17 kilos. The average weight of a "potro" hide is 6½ to 7 kilos. The hide on exhibition is therefore, very exceptional: it was sent from the province of Corrientes and has been carefully staked and dried. Messrs. Rivera will include this specimen in the fine collection which they are making for the Chicago Exhibition.

An extraordinary general meeting of the members of the Anglo-Argentine Bank, was held on May 30. at the Cannon Street Hotel, E. C., to consider resolutions reducing the capital of the company from £1,000,000 divided into 100,000 shares of £10 each, to £950,000, divided into 50,000 shares of £10 each and 50,000 shares of £9 each, such reduction to be effected by cancelling paid-up capital, which has been lost or is unrepresented by available assets, to the extent of £1 per share upon each of the 50,000 shares of the company which have been issued and are now outstanding. The Chairman (Mr. Sampson S. Lloyd), in moving the resolutions, said the matter had received the most careful consideration of the board, and was sanctioned by every member of it, in whose opinion the auditors and solicitor concurred, besides many of the largest shareholders. The reason that £30.000 would not cover the loss, as anticipated, was that the estates which were in liquidation turned out worse than was expected, the failure of the English bank of the River Plate being responsible for many downfalls. If which the directors had no control. With the very good connection at Montevideo, and a small connection left in Buenos Ayres. there was no doubt that the business could be made to prosper and earn dividends if the burden could be got rid of, and it appeared wise to the directors to ask the shareholders to sanction the writing off the loss, so that the bank could go on making small profits, but some years must elapse before the debts could be written off out of earned revenue, not to mention a dividend. Mr. Norman seconded the resolutions, which were carried.

Cheques of the Provincial Bank closed to-day at 44 ¼ discount, those of the National Bank at 20¾ % discount. Bonos of the La Plata Mortgage Bank were quoted at 16, say 84 % discount.

The following sales are reported :—

'La Chola' estancia in Bahia Blanca, 10,000 hectares of land, fenced and with estancia house, at $4.90 per hectare. Buyer, Mr. F. Luppi.

The enormous port dues charged on La Plata are steamers entering the Dar- [illegible] subject of great complaint. [illegible] when these Montevidean steamers [illegible] much opposition were got to enter the Darsena the dues were fixed at 2 [illegible] per ton measurement in paper, but this year they have jumped the dues from paper to gold, thus the company has now to pay over $21,000 %n per month, against $7,000 %n per month some 2 years ago. No wonder under such excessive taxation the Platense Company pays no dividend to its liquidators or shareholders. Nor is this all, for the fees of the Oriental Consul for steamers plying with Montevideo have also to be paid, and they range from £100 to £500 per month gold. The dock dues appear to us most excessive on these steamers ; and it is to be hoped that the Minister of Hacienda, Sr. Hansen, will use his great influence to have them some what moderated.

A very active businesshas sprung up in the National Bonds of both Empresti tos, and as there is virtually no other decent stock to speculate in, the ring people are now every day dabbling in these stocks. Sales on time now in either of those empresti tos are as easily made as for cash, and some brokers are making much money in both stocks. The general belief is that at present prices these bonds are very cheap, giving a very splendid interest to people with ready money. Large time contracts are spoken of, as one half of the ring thinks that the bonds of the 1892 loan will be over 70 at the end of the next quarter, say 30th. Sept. The 91 bonds will in a few days be at 75: such is the general opinion in the market.

With much pleasure we announce that Mr. Jones, manager of the English Bank of the River Plate, is now quite convalescent, and was at the Bank to-day.

Respecting the sale of 400 square leagues in the Santa Cruz territory to Mr. Grumbein at 1000 %n gold per league about which so much fuss was made, we learn on good authority that the purchase is for account of the present settlers and "pobladores" down there, who are all doing well with their sheep, being chiefly sheepfarmers from the Falkland Islands. The business is in every sense a most advantageous one for the Government, and one which we hope to see carried out, as it will tend to the polishing of all these camps by honest industrious sheepfarmers, not speculators. The area of sheep land down there belonging to the Government is over 7,000 square leagues.

Mr. Kelsey reports a good deal of wool still coming to the market, and prices the same as last month in gold; he sold some good Ranchos wool yesterday at 5.75 per 10 kilos.

Mr. Morkill, who has just arrived from Europe, was warmly welcomed on Change. Mr. Martin Meyer, the distinguished hide broker, leaves in the Orione for Genoa on 1st prox. on a four months' fatherland trip. During his absence Mr. E. Meyer, his eldest son, will take charge of his business.

Lincoln sheep are in demand and we hear of a large sale made from the Curumalan estancia. There are buyers in the market for several flocks deliverable on the Rio Colorado, but as yet no purchases have been made ; parties having too many sheep on the western and inside camps ought to avail of the opportunity and sell before the sheep are too thin to drive.

Owing to the recent coach-house conflagrations and the large number of fine horses that perished, good carriage horses are in stiff demand. and prices within the last few days have advanced considerably. The sale of a fine pair of carriage horses, mestizo, of the Campbell estancia brand, is reported at 1600 %n cash.

Discount brokers report some first-class pagarés done as low as 5¼ per cent. This shows how abundant money is getting in certain circles, whilst in other circles where credit is restricted as high as 12 per cent is paid on "retroventa." This goes to show that for those who enjoy good credit money is superabundant and cheap, whilst for the outside market money is as dear as ever. The cheapness of money is throwing a good deal of capital into the Empresti tos bonds of 1891 and 1892, the only investing stock in the market to-day.

The merchants of Montevideo have presented Mr. Thurburn, on his leaving there to take charge of the management of the London and River Plate Bank here, with a most beautiful album. This high compliment to Mr. Thurburn is augmented by the very severe state of the money market down there

Half Rosario is down with influenza, and most of the leading people there are at present confined to bed. All the cashiers are laid up, and there is no collecting an account until they get better

Many parties enquire in what description of money—'bonos,' 'cupones' or cheques—is the Provincial Contribucion Directa this year payable. We can find out nothing about it here, but have referred our friends to Mr. E. T. Puleston of La Plata, who will best be able to answer the question.

The fine Veloce steamer Matteo Bruzzo arrived at Montevideo last night with 5 first, 10 second and 144 third-class passengers and 1100 tons cargo for this port.

The gold market opened with some firmness at the second ring but weakened at the close of operations. Twelve thousand ounces were sold for Thursday; the price opened at 50,20§, fell to 70§, and closed at 49.90, say 206¼ %. Five hundred sovereigns were at $15.55 and 15.50, say 207¼ premium. Large amounts of Patriotic Bonds were sold ; prices closed at 69¼ for end of July ; touched 71 for Thursday, closing at 70¼. Catalinas were steady at 10.10. La Plata Cedulas were slightly weaker at 32 and 32.10.

The French packet La Plata will be towed into La Plata harbor ; she will undergo repairs at Montevideo and will be able to leave on her appointed date. We publish particulars of the explosion on board in another column.

DR. J. COLLIS BROWNE'S CHLORODYNE
COUGHS COLDS, ASTHMA, BRONCHITIS.
IS THE GREAT SPECIFIC FOR DIARRHOEA, DYSENTERY, CHOLERA.
Dr. J. Collis Browne's Chlorodyne—Dr J. Collis Browne (late Army Medical Staff) Discovered a Remedy, to denote which he coined the word «Chlorodyne.» Dr Browne is the Sole Inventor, and as the composition of Chlorodyne cannot possibly be discovered by Analysis (organic substances defying elimination), and since the formula has never been published, it is evident that any statement to the effect that a compound is identical with Dr Browne's Chlorodyne must be false.
This caution is necessary, as many persons deceive purchasers by false representations.
Dr. J. Collis Browne's Chlorodyne—Vice Chancellor Sir W PAGE WOOD stated publicly in Court that Dr. J. BROWNE was undoubtedly the INVENTOR of CHLORODYNE, that the whole story of the defendant Freeman was deliberately untrue, and he regretted to say it had been sworn to—See "The Times," July 13, 1864
GENERAL BOARD of HEALTH, London, REPORT that it ACTS as a CHARM, one does generally sufficient.
Dr. GIBBON, Army Medical Staff, Calcutta, states: "Two Doses Completely Cured Me Of Diarrhœa".
Dr. J. Collis Browne's Chlorodyne is a liquid medicine which assuages PAIN of every KIND, affords a calm, refreshing sleep, WITHOUT HEADACHE, and invigorates the nervous system when exhausted
Dr. J. Collis Browne's Chlorodyne rapidly cuts short all attacks of EPILEPSY, SPASMS, COLIC, PALPITATION, HYSTERIA

EXTRACT OF TOBACCO.
According to numerous testimonials which we hold the extract of pure tobacco is the only infallible remedy to radically cure the scab in sheep and naturally the cheapest. As there are several trade marks like ours care must be taken to see that the extract bears the key marks, without which it is not genuine.
Directions for use
One part of extract mixed with 100 to 150 parts of hot or cold water for bath, and with 80 to 100 parts for hand curing.
